

Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans Life Insurance, Disability Insurance and CIBC Payment Protector Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans

Your Insurance

Insurance is provided under Group Master Policy # G/H 60161 ("Policy"), issued by The Canada Life Assurance Company ("Canada Life") to Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ("CIBC"), and is administered by Canada Life and CIBC. CIBC receives a fee from Canada Life to promote and administer the Policy. In the event of a conflict between this Certificate and the Policy, the terms of the Policy will govern.

Each borrower who applies for Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans ("you") will be insured for the CIBC Personal Loan identified on your Application for Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans ("the Loan"), as long as you meet the terms and conditions on the Application for Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans and in this Certificate of Insurance.

What are the insurance coverage options?

You can apply for:

- Life Insurance; and/or one of
- Disability Insurance; or
- CIBC Payment Protector Insurance.

CIBC Payment Protector Insurance combines Disability Insurance and Job Loss Insurance into one insurance package.

One or two people can be insured for Life Insurance on the Loan. Only one person can be insured for either Disability Insurance or CIBC Payment Protector Insurance on the Loan.

Who is eligible to apply for the insurance?

You can apply for insurance coverage if you meet the following eligibility conditions:

Life Insurance:

The total outstanding principal balance of all of your CIBC Personal Loans insured for Life Insurance under the Policy, including the Loan being applied for, must be $200,000 or less; and you must:

- Have been approved for the Loan;
- Be a resident of Canada; and
- Be over age 18 and less than age 70 on the day that the Loan funds are advanced.

Disability Insurance:

The total outstanding principal balance of all of your CIBC Personal Loans insured for Disability or CIBC Payment Protector Insurance under the Policy, including the Loan being applied for, must be $200,000 or less and you must:

- Have been approved for the Loan;
- Be a resident of Canada;
- Be over age 18 and less than age 65 on the day that the Loan funds are advanced;
- Not be receiving any pension or disability benefits from any source; and
- Be gainfully employed and actively working at least 25 hours per week, or if you are a seasonal worker, you must:
 - Be capable of performing your regular duties;
 - Have worked the last season; and
 - Have a proven work history and verifiable future employment.

CIBC Payment Protector Insurance:

CIBC Payment Protector Insurance combines Disability Insurance and Job Loss Insurance into one insurance package. In order to be eligible to apply for CIBC Payment Protector Insurance, you must be eligible to apply for both Disability Insurance meeting the eligibility criteria set out under Disability Insurance immediately above, and Job Loss Insurance as follows:

Job Loss Insurance:

The total outstanding principal balance of all of your CIBC Personal Loans insured for Disability or CIBC Payment Protector Insurance under the Policy, including the Loan being applied for, must be $200,000 or less and you must:

- Have been approved for the Loan;
- Be a resident of Canada;
- Be over age 18 and less than age 65 on the day that the Loan funds are advanced;
- Not be receiving any pension or disability benefits from any source;
- Have been gainfully and continuously employed for the last 6 months and actively working at least 25 hours per week;
- Not have received notice of your pending unemployment in your workplace or company;
- Not be engaged in seasonal work; and
- Not be self-employed, an independent contractor, a controlling stockholder of your company or employed by a member of your immediate family.

When does your insurance coverage begin?

Your insurance coverage begins on the day that the Loan funds are advanced ("Effective Date"), provided that a completed and signed Application for Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans has been received by CIBC.

When does your insurance coverage end?

Your insurance coverage ends on the earliest of:

- The date of your 70th birthday;
- The date CIBC receives written notification from you canceling the insurance;
- The date the Loan is paid in full;
- The date of your death;
- The date that the Loan's scheduled payments are overdue 90 days or longer, unless you are receiving CIBC Payment Protector Insurance benefits under the Policy; and
- The date CIBC or Canada Life terminates the Policy.

What if you change your mind about the insurance?

You can cancel your insurance at any time by providing written notice to CIBC.

If you cancel your insurance within 30 days of signing your Application for Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans, you will receive a full refund of any premium you have paid, and your insurance coverage will never have been in force.

If you cancel your insurance more than 30 days following the date you signed your Application for Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans, the insurance termination will be effective on the date the written notice is received by CIBC.

Life Insurance Coverage

What is your Life Insurance benefit amount?

The Life Insurance benefit amount is the outstanding principal balance of the Loan on the date of your death, plus up to 6 months of accrued loan interest as charged by CIBC between the date of death and the date the claim benefit is paid. If your Life Insurance claim is approved, Canada Life will pay the benefit to CIBC to be applied to the Loan.

The maximum benefit payable is $200,000, plus up to 6 months of accrued loan interest, for all your loans insured for Life Insurance under the Policy.

Your estate is responsible for the Loan payments until the claim is approved. Any payments made after the date of death that are covered by the insurance will be reimbursed once the claim is approved.

When your Life Insurance benefit will not be paid

A Life Insurance benefit will not be paid if:

- You die within 12 months of your insurance Effective Date, and in the 12 months before you applied for the insurance, you:

- received treatment;
- took medication; or
- consulted a physician

for any health condition, or for any symptoms of a health condition, whether diagnosed or not, and the death for which a claim is being submitted is a result of that condition ("Pre-Existing Condition Exclusion");

- You commit suicide, whether sane or insane, within 2 years from your insurance Effective Date ("Suicide Exclusion");
- Your death is directly or indirectly due to, or was in any manner or degree associated with, or occasioned by, your commission or attempted commission of a criminal offense, including but not limited to, operating a motor vehicle while impaired or the illegal use of drugs;

or

- You were not eligible for the Life Insurance when you applied.

Special Provisions for Replacement Loans

If the proceeds of the Loan were used to pay a CIBC Personal Loan in full which was covered under Group Master Policy G/H 60161 (the "Previous Loan") within 5 business days of the Loan's funds being advanced, Canada Life may still pay a benefit when your life insurance claim is declined due to the Pre-Existing Condition Exclusion or the Suicide Exclusion. This provision does not apply to Disability or CIBC Payment Protector Insurance coverage.

If you would have been entitled to receive a benefit on the Previous Loan, your life insurance benefit amount is calculated as follows:

- The outstanding principal balance of the Previous Loan on the date it was paid in full is divided by the amount of the Loan on the date the Loan funds were advanced.
- This percentage is applied to the outstanding balance of the Loan on the date of your death to determine the benefit payable to CIBC.

Canada Life will also pay to CIBC interest accruing on the Loan between the date of death and the date the claim is paid for a maximum accrual period of 6 months.

If you have multiple Previous Loans, the outstanding balance of the first Previous Loan on the date it was paid in full will be used to determine the benefit payable.

How is your Life Insurance premium calculated?

Your Life Insurance premium is calculated and accumulated daily using your age on the date the Loan funds were advanced, the applicable premium rate from the rate table below, and the daily outstanding principal balance of the Loan. Applicable provincial sales taxes are added.

The accumulated insurance premiums are collected with the Loan's scheduled payment.

Approximate monthly rate table per $1,000 of the Loan's outstanding principal balance*:

* Because premiums are calculated daily, the monthly premium will vary depending on the

	<30	30-35	36-40	41-45	46-50	51-55	56-60	61-64	65-69
One Person	$0.14	$0.23	$0.35	$0.57	$0.83	$1.25	$1.42	$1.68	$2.90
Two People	$0.22	$0.37	$0.56	$0.91	$1.33	$2.00	$2.27	$2.69	$4.64 number of days in the month.

When there are two people insured on the Loan, the Life Insurance premium rate is based on the age of the older person.

Life Insurance premium rates are subject to change.

Disability Insurance Coverage

What is a Disability?

For the first 12 months of your Disability Insurance claim, Disability/Disabled means:

You are completely unable, due to sickness, injury, mental illness or nervous disorder, to perform your normal duties of your full time occupation that you were engaged in immediately prior to the Disability. If you are a seasonal employee, Disability means that you are completely unable to perform the essential duties of your principal occupation due to sickness, injury, mental illness or nervous disorder.

After the first 12 months of your Disability Insurance claim, Disability/Disabled means:

You are completely unable, due to sickness, injury, mental illness or nervous disorder, to perform any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience.

In all cases:

Pregnancy is considered a Disability only if it is defined as high-risk by your attending physician.

What is your Disability Insurance benefit amount?

The Disability Insurance benefit is the Loan's regular payment amount of principal and interest, as documented on your CIBC Personal Borrowing Agreement, or if renewed, the latest Loan Renewal Agreement document, plus any applicable insurance premiums. If your Disability Insurance claim is approved, Canada Life will pay the benefit amount to CIBC to be applied to the Loan and any insurance premiums owing on each of the Loan's scheduled payment dates for the duration of the Disability Insurance claim period. Any increases to the Loan payment amount between scheduled renewals of the Loan will not alter your Disability Insurance benefit amount.

The maximum benefit payable is $200,000 for all your loans insured for Disability Insurance or CIBC Payment Protector Insurance under the Policy.

When do your Disability Insurance benefit payments begin?

No Disability Insurance benefits are payable for the first 30 days from the date of Disability. If your Disability Insurance claim is approved by Canada Life, your benefit will be paid to CIBC to be applied to the Loan on the first scheduled payment due date following the 30-day period.

If the same Disability recurs within 21 consecutive days of recovery or your return to work, and lasts a minimum of 7 consecutive days, your Disability will be treated as a continuation of the same claim. This means that your benefit payments will be applied to the Loan on the first scheduled payment due date following the date of recovery.

You are responsible for the Loan payments until the claim is approved. Any payments made that are covered by the insurance will be reimbursed once the claim is approved.

When do your Disability Insurance benefit payments end?

Your Disability Insurance benefit payments will end on the Loan's last scheduled payment due date prior to the earliest of:

- The date the Disability Insurance benefits paid total $200,000 for all of your loans insured for Disability Insurance or CIBC Payment Protector as at the date of Disability;
- The date the Loan is paid in full;
- The date you have received 12 months of Disability Insurance benefit payments, and you are able to perform any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience;
- The date your Disability ends, as determined by Canada Life;
- The date you return to work or engage in any business or occupation for wages or profit;
- The date you do not provide proof, satisfactory to Canada Life, of continuing Disability;
- The date you refuse to submit to a medical examination by a doctor or other health practitioner selected by Canada Life;

- The date of your 70th birthday; or
- The date of your death.

When your Disability Insurance benefits will not be paid

A Disability Insurance benefit will not be paid if:

- Your Disability begins within 12 months of your insurance Effective Date, and in the 12 months before you applied for the insurance, you:
 - received treatment;
 - took medication; or
 - consulted a physician
 for any health condition, or for any symptoms of a health condition, whether diagnosed or not, and the Disability for which a claim is being submitted is a result of that condition;
- You are not under the regular care of a doctor approved by Canada Life;
- Your Disability results from a mental or nervous disorder, unless you are under the care of a specialist in psychiatry;
- Your Disability results from self-inflicted injury, whether you are sane or insane;
- Your Disability results from drug or alcohol abuse, unless you are participating in a rehabilitation program approved by Canada Life and started during the 30-day Disability Insurance claim waiting period;
- Your Disability is directly or indirectly due to, or was in any manner or degree associated with, or occasioned by, your commission or attempted commission of a criminal offense, including but not limited to, operating a motor vehicle while impaired or the illegal use of drugs;
- You were not eligible for Disability Insurance when you applied; or
- You gave a false or incomplete response to requests for information that Canada Life requires to approve your claim.

How is your Disability Insurance premium calculated?

Your Disability Insurance premium is calculated and accrued daily using your age on the date the Loan funds were advanced, the applicable premium rate from the rate table below, and the Loan's regular payment amount of principal and interest, as documented on your CIBC Personal Borrowing Agreement, or any subsequent Loan Renewal Agreement documents, plus any applicable insurance premiums. Applicable provincial sales taxes are added.

The accumulated insurance premiums are collected with the Loan's scheduled payment.

Approximate monthly rate table per $100 of the Loan's regular payment amount*:

	<30	30-35	36-40	41-45	46-50	51-55	56-60	61-64	65-69
Single	$3.06	$3.34	$3.52	$3.70	$4.70	$5.40	$6.20	$7.00	N/A

* Because premiums are calculated daily, the monthly premium will vary depending on the number of days in the month.

Disability Insurance premium rates are subject to change.

CIBC Payment Protector Insurance Coverage

CIBC Payment Protector Insurance combines Disability Insurance and Job Loss Insurance into one insurance package.

The Disability Insurance provided under the CIBC Payment Protector Insurance package is the same as the Disability Insurance detailed on page 1.

The Job Loss Insurance provided under the CIBC Payment Protector Insurance is as detailed below.

What is a Disability?

Please see the "What is a Disability" section on page 1.

What is a Job Loss?

Job Loss means that your employment stopped, or was suspended, as a result of layoff (temporary or permanent suspension by employer) or termination by your employer (not for cause), and you are receiving Government of Canada Employment Insurance Benefits; or, you have a temporary loss of employment due to unionized labour disputes, strikes or lockouts.

What is your CIBC Payment Protector Insurance benefit amount?

For Disability Insurance:

Please see the "What is your Disability Insurance benefit amount" section on page 1.

For Job Loss Insurance:

Upon approval of a Job Loss claim, Canada Life pays the interest payable on the Loan to CIBC until you are no longer eligible for Job Loss benefits, up to a maximum period of six months for each Job Loss occurrence. Any insurance premiums owing during the Job Loss claim period are waived. This means that the Loan's scheduled payments will be delayed for the Job Loss claim period and the term of the Loan will be extended by the time period of each delay. You will be responsible for the Loan's scheduled payments (including principal, interest, and insurance premiums) during the extended period of the Loan.

In the event of simultaneous Disability and Job Loss, only the Disability Insurance benefit is payable.

When will your CIBC Payment Protector Insurance benefits begin?

For Disability Insurance:

Please see the "When do your Disability Insurance benefit payments begin" section on page 1.

For Job Loss Insurance:

If your Job Loss Insurance claim is approved by Canada Life, your scheduled Loan payments will be delayed starting the first scheduled payment due date following a 30-day waiting period from the date of Job Loss.

You are responsible for the Loan payments until the claim is approved. Any payments made that are covered by the insurance will be reimbursed once the claim is approved.

When will your CIBC Payment Protector Insurance benefits end?

For Disability Insurance:

Please see the "When do your Disability Insurance benefit payments end" section on page 1.

For Job Loss Insurance:

Your Job Loss Insurance benefits will end on the Loan's last scheduled payment due date prior to the earliest of:

- The date you return to work, or you engage in any business or occupation for wages or profit;
- The date when 6 months of Job Loss Insurance benefits have been paid per occurrence of Job Loss;
- The date the Loan is paid in full;
- The date of your 70th birthday;

- The date of your death; or
- The date you fail to provide proof, satisfactory to Canada Life, of continuing unemployment.

When your CIBC Payment Protector Insurance benefits will not be paid/provided

A Disability Insurance benefit will not be paid if:

Please see the "When your Disability Insurance benefits will not be paid" section on page 1. A Job Loss Insurance benefit will not be provided if:

- You fail to provide proof of your receipt of Government of Canada Employment Insurance Benefits, unless your Job Loss is temporary due to unionized labour disputes, strikes or lockouts;
- You are terminated by your employer for cause;
- You quit or voluntarily end your employment;
- You retire, whether mandatorily or voluntarily;
- You have received notice of your pending unemployment in the 90 days prior to applying for CIBC Payment Protector Insurance;
- You die or become Disabled;
- You are laid-off from seasonal work, or are terminated from part-time or contract work;
- Your Job Loss is the result of natural disasters or acts of God;
- You are on maternity or parental leave;
- You are self-employed, an independent contractor, a controlling stockholder of your company, or employed by an immediate family member;
- You were not eligible for Job Loss Insurance when you applied; or
- You give a false or incomplete response to requests for information that Canada Life requires to adjudicate your claim.

How is your CIBC Payment Protector Insurance premium calculated?

Your CIBC Payment Protector Insurance premium is calculated and accrued daily using your age on the date the Loan funds were advanced, the applicable premium rate from the rate table below, and the Loan's regular payment amount of principal and interest, as documented on your CIBC Personal Borrowing Agreement, or any subsequent Loan Renewal Agreement documents, plus any applicable insurance premiums. Applicable provincial sales taxes are added.

The accumulated insurance premiums are collected with the Loan's scheduled payment.

	<30	30-35	36-40	41-45	46-50	51-55	56-60	61-64	65-69

* Because premiums are calculated daily, the monthly premium will vary depending on the number of days in the month.

CIBC Payment Protector Insurance premium rates are subject to change.

Additional information regarding your Certificate of Insurance

How do you make a claim?

Insurance claim forms are available from any CIBC branch. We recommend that you make a claim as soon as possible following an insured event.

Who is the beneficiary of your insurance?

All insurance benefits are paid to CIBC to reduce or pay off the Loan and to pay any applicable insurance premiums. You cannot choose a beneficiary.

Changes to your insurance coverage

Canada Life and CIBC can elect to change your insurance coverage. This may include having the Policy provided by a different insurance company. If such a change takes place, your original Application for Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans will continue to apply for your insurance coverage, both before and after any changes.

Other things you should know about your insurance

If you have misstated your age on your Application for Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans, and your true age would have rendered you ineligible for the insurance, Canada Life's liability will be limited to a refund of premiums paid. You cannot assign this Certificate of Insurance.

No legal action may be brought against Canada Life unless it is within the shorter of:

- 12 months of from the date of claim; or
- The shortest applicable limit of time established by law in the province in which you reside.

Canada Life has the right, at their own expense, to examine you, when, and as often as they may reasonably require, in order to adjudicate a claim or to determine the continuance of a claim. This includes the right to request an autopsy in the case of death where such action is not forbidden by law.

All premiums and benefits payable under the Policy are in Canadian dollars.

Protecting your personal information

At The Canada Life Assurance Company (Canada Life), we recognize and respect the importance of privacy.
